DEFENDANT: Nicholas James Mann CASE NUMBER: 0645 2:15CR20017 (1)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- 13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1. The defendant shall successfully complete any sex offender diagnostic evaluations, treatment or counseling programs, and polygraph examinations as directed by the probation officer. Reports pertaining to sex offender assessments, treatment, and polygraph examinations shall be provided to the probation officer. Based on the defendant's ability to pay, the defendant shall pay the cost of diagnostic evaluations, treatment or counseling programs, and polygraph examinations in an amount determined by the probation officer.
- 2. The defendant shall comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 16901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the United States Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which he resides, works, is a student, or was convicted of a qualifying offense.
- 3. The defendant shall not have contact of any kind with children under the age of 18, without prior approval of the probation officer. The defendant shall not frequent places where children congregate on a regular basis (such as but not limited to school grounds, playgrounds, child toy stores, video arcades, etc.).
- 4. The defendant shall not purchase, sell, view, or possess images, in any form of media or live venue, that depict pornography, sexually explicit conduct, child erotica, or child nudity. The defendant shall not patronize any place where such material or entertainment is available.
- 5. The defendant shall have employment pre-approved by the Probation Department. The defendant shall not be employed at or participate in any volunteer activities that involve contact with children under the age of 18 without prior approval from the probation officer.
- 6. The defendant shall have all residences pre-approved by the Probation Department. The defendant shall not live in a residence where children under the age of 18 reside without prior approval of the probation officer.
- 7. The defendant shall submit his person, residence, office, vehicle(s), papers, business or place of employment, and any property under his control to a search. Such a search shall be conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner based upon a reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to such a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall warn any residents that the premises may be subject to searches.
- 8. The defendant shall provide the probation officer with accurate information about all computer systems (hardware/software), all passwords, and Internet Service Provider(s), that you have potential and/or reasonable access to and abide by all rules of the U.S. Probation Department's Computer Monitoring Program. The defendant shall only access a computer approved by the U.S. Probation Department. The defendant shall consent to the probation officer conducting periodic unannounced examinations of all computer systems, which may include computer monitoring software at your expense. For the purpose of accounting for all computers, hardware, software and accessories; the defendant shall submit his/her person, residence, computer and/or vehicle to a search conducted by the U.S. Probation Department at a reasonable time and manner. You shall inform any other residents that the premises and your computer may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition. The defendant shall provide the probation officer
